4. [REDACTED] Felipe Herrera is planning to accept a position in the Allende government in May 1971 and he has asked El Mercurio to depict his return as guaranteeing democratic freedoms in the coalition government.

5. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]B. Accomplishments:

Despite some reduction in propaganda output, Stations continue to place materials or look for opportunities to exploit the return of assets from Santiago. Some [REDACTED] planning is also being done in anticipation of Allende's succession to power on 4 November.

C. Situation:

The overt political situation in Chile is relatively calm, with Allende receiving most of the local press attention and the PDC conspicuously inactive. Allende is concentrating on developing a modus vivendi with the PDC and the varying factions within the UP.
